Just got a text from coach Nick Baker informing me that his Haddonfield team had a great performance today at the NYC XC Carnival at Van Cortlandt Park in the Bronx.

Ben Potts finished first in 12:41.6, No. 5 in school history, and Matt Nussbaum was second in 12:48.6 to spark Haddonfield to a swift 5-man average of 13:13.7 and captured the team title in the A race, 37-51 over Holy Ghost Prep. St. Anthony was third with 67.

Haddonfield's avg. is the fastest by a NJ team this season at Vanny. CBA's 13:17.3 on the 2.5-mile course, which it ran to get second in the Eastern States race last week at the Manhattan

Invitational, is now the No. 2 NJ time this season at Vanny.

Congrats to the Haddonfield boys and coach Baker on the big victory.

Note:

The finish line used for the race was the traditional one, not the one used at last week's Manhattan Invitational alongside Broadway. Why couldn't they use the same finish last week??? Who knows what is going on at Van Cortlandt anymore. The park looked better before they did all this so called construction. What a cluster blank.

Also, Baker noted that the very strong winds were at the backs of the runners at the start and finish.
